

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 152 Belleville Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone.

Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

2,042 Community Members in Belleville

We’re calling on every Belleville resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

16% of students in Belleville are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 16% of students in Belleville cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

85 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

82 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," Belleville School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

Belleville Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 134 Cambridge Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone. Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

1,284 Community Members in Cambridge

We’re calling on every Cambridge resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

23% of students in Cambridge are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 23% of students in Cambridge cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

76 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

60 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," Cambridge School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

Cambridge Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 198 Cottage Grove Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone. Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

7,255 Community Members in Cottage Grove

We’re calling on every Cottage Grove resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

19% of students in Cottage Grove are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 19% of students in Cottage Grove cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

101 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

143 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," Monona Grove School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

Cottage Grove Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 335 Cross Plains Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone. Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

4,070 Community Members in Cross Plains

We’re calling on every Cross Plains resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

13% of students in Cross Plains are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 13% of students in Cross Plains cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

82 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

83 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," Middleton Cross Plains School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

Cross Plains Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 80 Deerfield Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone. Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

2,497 Community Members in Deerfield

We’re calling on every Deerfield resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

16% of students in Deerfield are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 16% of students in Deerfield cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

106 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

69 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," Deerfield School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

Deerfield Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 460 DeForest Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone. Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

10,700 Community Members in DeForest

We’re calling on every DeForest resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

20% of students in DeForest are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 20% of students in DeForest cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

1,272 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

406 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," DeForest Area School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

DeForest Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 2,745 Fitchburg Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone. Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

29,361 Community Members in Fitchburg

We’re calling on every Fitchburg resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

33% of students in Fitchburg are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 33% of students in Fitchburg cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

2,966 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

933 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," Madison Metropolitan School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

Fitchburg Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 386 McFarland Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone. Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

9,026 Community Members in McFarland

We’re calling on every McFarland resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

25% of students in McFarland are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 25% of students in McFarland cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

201 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

314 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," McFarland School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

McFarland Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 279 Marshall Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone. Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

3,824 Community Members in Marshall

We’re calling on every Marshall resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

28% of students in Marshall are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 28% of students in Marshall cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

744 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

154 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," Marshall School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

Marshall Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 2,111 Middleton Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone. Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

21,634 Community Members in Middleton

We’re calling on every Middleton resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

13% of students in Middleton are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 13% of students in Middleton cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

1,746 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

937 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," Middleton Cross Plains School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

Middleton Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 311 Mount Horeb Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone. Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

7,727 Community Members in Mount Horeb

We’re calling on every Mount Horeb resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

13% of students in Mount Horeb are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 13% of students in Mount Horeb cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

232 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

206 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," Mount Horeb School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

Mount Horeb Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 803 Oregon Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone. Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

11,100 Community Members in Oregon

We’re calling on every Oregon resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

15% of students in Oregon are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 15% of students in Oregon cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

517 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

209 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," Oregon School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

Oregon Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 1,215 Stoughton Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone. Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

13,158 Community Members in Stoughton

We’re calling on every Stoughton resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

29% of students in Stoughton are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 29% of students in Stoughton cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

1,006 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

728 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," Stoughton School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

Stoughton Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 3,661 Sun Prairie Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone. Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

35,528 Community Members in Sun Prairie

We’re calling on every Sun Prairie resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

27% of students in Sun Prairie are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 27% of students in Sun Prairie cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

1,981 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

1,914 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," Sun Prairie School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

Sun Prairie Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 873 Verona Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone.

Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

13,798 Community Members in Verona

We’re calling on every Verona resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

22% of students in Verona are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 22% of students in Verona cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

220 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

356 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," Verona School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

Verona Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 403 Waunakee Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone.

Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

14,679 Community Members in Waunakee

We’re calling on every Waunakee resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

12% of students in Waunakee are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 12% of students in Waunakee cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

559 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

261 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," Waunakee School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

Waunakee Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

Creating Lasting, Positive Change

Last Year, 100 Windsor Residents Were Helped by United Way Services.*

At United Way of Dane County, we know that the well-being of our children and families directly impacts the overall health of our community. By helping neighbors in need access the building blocks of well-being – a quality education, family-supporting job and health supports – we’re working to solve big-picture issues no one person or organization can address alone. Together, we are The Power of Many. Working for All.

8,589 Community Members in Windsor

We’re calling on every Windsor resident to be a part of the change! Because when more of your neighbors have the support they need to succeed, our entire community is better positioned to thrive.

20% of students in Windsor are not on track to graduate

Reading proficiency is essential to academic success in future grades, but 20% of students in Windsor cannot read at grade level. Research shows that students who struggle with reading are significantly less likely to graduate from high school or enter college.

404 Neighbors Are Living in Poverty

Poverty presents several barriers to achieving family well-being. When more people have access to safe, affordable housing and jobs earning family-sustaining wages, our entire community works better.

87 Referrals For Help Through 211

United Way 211 is available 24/7 and offers free, confidential assistance. Every day United Way connects people with local programs and services that can help.

*May include individuals who access services through multiple agencies. Data from U.S. Census Bureau American Community Survey, 5 year estimates (2017-2021), Tables DP05 & S1701; DPI WiseDash, 2021-2022, Forward ELA test (grades 3-8), percentage scored "below basic," DeForest Area School District; United Way of Dane County 211 and Partner Nonprofit Reports.

Windsor Needs You!

Donate today at unitedwayofdanecounty.org. Your gift is critical and creates lasting change across generations in your community.

